

Bainbridge Island existing power grid

Three substations serve 12,400 island customers

Port Madison substation
Serving 4,000 customers
Originally built in 1980
New transmission line and improvements in 2000

Transmission lines above distribution lines on Madison Avenue NE

Transmission lines on Sportsman Club Road supplying power to Murden Cove substation

Murden Cove substation
Serving 4,550 customers
Originally built in 1980

Transmission lines on Carmella Lane supplying power to Winslow substation

Winslow substation
Serving 3,850 customers
Originally built in 1960

Customer growth 2009-2017
Year	Customers
2009	11,824
2010	11,789
2011	11,832
2012	11,848
2013	11,908
2014	12,167
2015	12,215
2016	12,314
2017	12,421