

Bainbridge Island existing power grid

Three substations serve approximately 12,970 island customers

Port Madison substation
Serving approximately 4,140 customers
Originally built in 1954
New transmission line and improvements in 2000

Transmission lines above distribution lines on Madison Avenue NE

Transmission lines on Sportsman Club Road supplying power to Murden Cove substation

Murden Cove substation
Serving approximately 4,850 customers
Originally built in 1979

Transmission lines on Carmella Lane supplying power to Winslow substation

Winslow substation
Serving approximately 3,980 customers
Originally built in 1960

